TP/19/019 Reports from Unitary Authority Members relevant to this committee
None.

TP/19/020 Warminster Wobble
Cllr Fryer proposed members approved further discussions with Redfish Events about how the Wobble can best be organised and nominated Cllr Robbins as lead member to work with officers and Redfish Events on this issue, seconded Cllr Ridout, voting unanimous in favour.

TP/19/021 Events in Warminster
Cllr Fryer proposed the Assistant Clerk write to Lizzie Blake outlining that the Council was grateful for the offer, but that the council doesn't have a budget or suggestion for a new event this year. The letter would also convey the view of the Sub-Committee that perhaps the best way forward would be for an existing event to be supported, seconded Cllr Spender, voting unanimous in favour.

TP/19/022 Warminster Parking Partnership
Cllr Robbins proposed members agree not to pursue the matter of metal signage in the carparks, seconded Cllr Ridout, voting unanimous in favour.

TP/19/023 Imber Perimeter Path
Members gave a vote of thanks to Nigel Linge and all those involved in the revamped Imber Perimeter Path. Members suggested the following ways in which Warminster can promote and further benefit the Imber Perimeter Path: Via the area board, the town council's website and facebook pages and WCR coverage. It was agreed to ask Nigel Linge if he could provide a map to be displayed on the Council's website etc.

TP/19/024 Communications
