Co-option Policy

1. All committees of Warminster Town Council, with the exception of the Finance and Audit Committee, can co-opt members who are not elected Councillors to assist with the work of their committee.
2. The co-option of an individual is not to be confused with the filling of a casual vacancy on full council, which would only arise if an elected member should resign, die or be disqualified.
3. Co-option will not be politically led nor be a vehicle to enlist those parties not represented on Warminster Town Council.
4. Co-opted members appointed to a Committee of the Council will have the authority of the organisation they are representing and this should be advised in writing to the clerk of the council if requested.
5. Co-opted members will be known as Advisers to the committee.
6. Advisers can be appointed by a committee in the event that additional expertise is required to make decisions or add knowledge that would be of benefit to the committee concerned.
7. Advisers will have no voting rights. There are exceptions to this rule, and non members would have a vote in four cases. These four are: the management of land owned or occupied by the council; harbour functions if the council is a harbour authority; any function under section 144 of the Local Government Act 1972 relating to the promotion of tourism; any function under section 145 of the Local Government Act 1972 relating to the management of a festival.

‘Management’ does not include the determination of the total amount of money which may be expended in any financial year by the council in respect of the land or festival.
8. All members of a Committee will vote for an individual adviser to be appointed by way of a resolution in a public meeting, with the exception of the HR Committee who will appoint in private.
