DO YOU LIKE FLOWERS?

DO YOU LIKE MEETING FRIENDS?

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT OF JOINING A FLOWER CLUB?

WARMINSTER & WYLYE VALLEY FLOWER CLUB

is a friendly group who love flowers and enjoy seeing new ideas demonstrated by different specialists. Arrangements illustrate a variety of themes, uses and occasions.

The club meets in Warminster Civic Centre on the last Tuesday of the month (not December) at 2:30 p.m.*

The flowers arranged are raffled, refreshments are served and there is a sales table with relevant items.

There is a contribution of £8.00 per visitor. All are welcome (including absolute beginners).

*Please request a Club Programme for details of the occasional alternative activity/venue.  As of January 2025

WARMINSTER U3A MONTHLY TALKS

Warminster Civic Centre

Every last Wednesday of the month

2pm Meet & Coffee, 2:45pm Start of Talk

August 27th: Recycling - Your Questions Answered

Charlotte Knowles-Lawson from Wiltshire Council will discuss what happens to our waste, how we can reduce and recycle more, and the county's future recycling plans. Learn how to stay informed and make a difference.

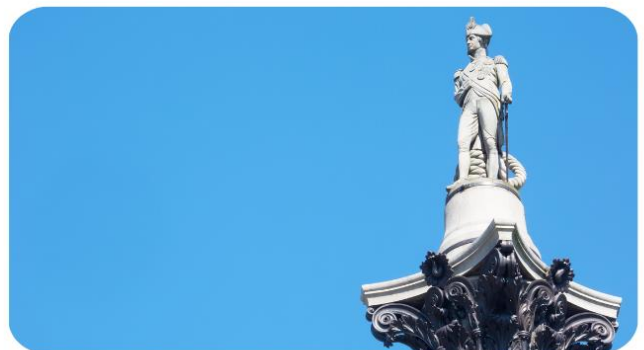

September 24th: Wiltshire Air Ambulance

Join Gary Morgan, a volunteer with Wiltshire Air Ambulance, as he shares insights into the history of the service, the vital role it plays across the region, and the specialist equipment used to provide life-saving medical care by land and air.

October 29th: Horatio Nelson

James Taylor presents a captivating talk on Vice-Admiral Horatio Nelson, whose leadership, strategy, and daring tactics shaped key victories in the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars. This year marks 220 years since the Battle of Trafalgar, the battle that secured British naval supremacy for over a century.

Entry £3 including tea, coffee and biscuits.
